

ACT TWO:

Too Tall Blues Band: "MY BABE",
"A LITTLE BIT", "MIDNIGHT HOUR"

Dan Damelin, John Germanotta, Tom Grandprey, Ken Kimura, Iain & Eric Ryrrie.

"TEMPERATE RAIN FOREST"

a collage Film by Paul Sarapas.

"CHILL BEL SONGO DI DORETTA"

Ruth Hartt, accompanied by Elissa Patukian.

"GREEN EGGS e3 HAM" by Dr. Suess.

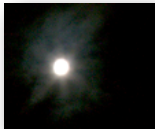

Reading by Shea Justice, Saxaphone by Dan Damelin.

"TO BE DECIDED AT THE VERY LAST MINUTE"

Whitney Davidson.

"SITTING IN LIMBO"

Ensemble.

ACTTWO Cast
Biographies

David Bloom teaches English and History. This is Dave's second show. His interests include following the local sports teams, paper recycling, and family. Dave would love to teach a course called "Growing the Perfect Tomato."

Dan Damelin teaches Chemistry and this is his second Variety Show. Dan's interests include music, photography & outdoor activity. Dan would love to teach "Contemplating Navel Lint at High Altitudes."

Whitney Davidson teaches History. This is her third variety show performance and she enjoys, learning foreign languages, reading, friends, and family.

Thomas Grandprey is the director of instrumental music at LS. This is his third variety show performance His interests include child rearing and playing bass with The Worcester Jazz Orchestra.

Ruth Hartt is the LS Choral Director and this is her second variety show. Ruth enjoys shopping, chocolate, opera, travel, piano and "24". Ruth will be giving a voice recital in April to benefit the Concord Chorus.

Shea Justice teaches Visual Art and this is his second variety show performance His interests include drawing, time with his son, film, music and history. Shea would teach "The Real Science Behind the Loch Ness Monster" if the school would let him.

Ken Kimura teaches Media Arts. This is his fifth appearance in The Variety Show. His interests include music, skiing, making stuff, and rock climbing. He'd love to teach "Productive Procrastination: How to avoid the forest by focussing on the trees."

Elissa Patukian, has been the accompanist for LS Choral Music for many years and is the pianist for the Masterworks Chorale in Framingham.

Iain Ryrrie has taught is West Housemaster. This is his fifth variety show performance His interests include music, cinema, reading, rugby, and home repair. Iain has performed with faculty blues bands for the past 20 years.

Eric Ryrrie appears in his fifth show. Eric's band The Skills has released CD's and performs both locally and in New York City.

Paul Sarapas teaches Media Arts and is FATA Dept. Coordinator. This is his fifth variety show. His interests include gardening, filmmaking, music and photography. He would love to teach "Dangerous Stunts & Pyrotechnics".

5TH ANNUAL FACULTY & STAFF VARIETY SHOW

 LINCOLN-SUDBURY REG. HIGH SCHOOL

THURSDAY MARCH 15, 2007

MASTERS OF CEREMONY:

KIM SCHULTZ & DAVID BLOOM

ACT ONE:

“COWBOY TAKE ME AWAY”

The Sudsie Chicks: Eleanor Burke, Donna Guarino, Jen Reen, Connie Patten, Nicole Stewart.

“FATHER & SON”

John Germanotta

SCENE FROM “ON GOLDEN POND” by Earnest Thompson. Midge Callahan & Richard Berger.

“TO BE ANNOUNCED”

Mark Santoro

“LIMEROCK”

Shireen Meskoob & Megan McPhee

“LONG MONDAY”, “LOUISE”

John and Rachel Ritchie

ACT ONE

Cast Biographies

Richard Berger has taught Spanish at LS for 30 years. This is his fifth variety show performance. Richard would love to teach “How to Deal with the World Once You Leave Home and High School”.

“Eleanor Burke is South Housemaster and Recycling fanatic. This is her third variety show appearance. Her interests include anything outdoors (unless it involves parachutes or bungee cords). Class that Eleanor would love to teach: “Windsurfing--after I learn how to.”

Midge Callahan is a counselor and this is her fifth variety show performance. Her interests include golf, piano, and massage. She would “love to teach old dogs new tricks.”

John Germanotta teaches Drama. This is his fifth variety show performance. His interests include music, hiking, and cooking. John would love to teach “Psychology of the Fallacy Challenged”.

Donna Guarino teaches Math and this is her fifth variety show performance. Her interests include tennis and singing. She’d love to teach “Home Repairs and Improvement without the Help of a Man”.

Megan McPhee is an LS Senior. Her interests include ballet, skiing, travel, history, reading and writing. Megan plays violin at The New England Conservatory and The LS Civic Orchestra. She will be attending Princeton next year.

Shireen Meskoob teaches History and this is her second Variety Show appearance. Shireen enjoys working out with Ruth Hartt at the Thoro- eau Center, watching movies and TV series, yoga, needlepoint and paint-by-numbers. Shireen performs with the LS Civic Orchestra.

Connie Patten is Science Dept. Coordinator and teaches Physics. This is her fifth appearance. Connie enjoys Irish traditional music and performs regularly with numerous Celtic musicians at Boston area pubs, folk festivals, and dance performances. If only the school would allow it, Connie would teach a course on “How to Think.”

Jen Reen is a Clinical Counselor and this is her fourth Variety Show performance. Jen enjoys exploring New England Seaports, the Jersey Shore, friends, and singing at the top of her lungs in her car “Silky”. She’d love to teach “The Mastery of Karaoke”.

John Ritchie, LS Superintendent/Principal performs regularly at all sorts of LS events. This is his fourth Variety Show performance. John enjoys music and reading, and would love to teach English again.

Rachel Posner Ritchie, LS Superintendent/Principal age 23, is a graduate of Colby College, a part time singer and full time daughter. This is her first Variety Show performance.

Mark Santoro is an LS campus aid. This is his fourth show. He loves music, movies, playing guitar and booting cars. He’d love to teach “Johnny Cash 101”

Kim Schultz teaches Spanish and this is her second Variety Show appearance. Kim enjoys Foreign and independent films, travel, scrabble, and reality TV. Some may remember Kim’s last performance where she Tap danced and fell down on the stage. Kim would love to teach “Scrabble 101.”

Nicole Stewart is the LS METCO Director and this is her third Variety Show performance. Nicole enjoys mountain climbing and square dancing. She is accompanied on stage by her son Njavan Stewart-Okiwe who’s main hobby is driving his mother insane. Njavan would love to teach “Duck, Duck, Goose”!

Stage/Tech Crew

Stage Manager: John Flynn

Lighting: Nicole Digenis

Audio: Chuck D.

Ticket Sales: Cyndy Falwell, Heather Norton, Tracey Lyon, Fran Ricker.

Variety Show Planning: Rich Berger, Midge Callahan, Nicole Digenis, Iain, Ryrrie.

Poster: Ken Kimura

Program: Paul Sarapas

Thanks To: Sally Wadman, LS Building & Grounds, COMCAST/Sudbury Cable Access, John G & Chuck D.